

CALL FOR PAPERS (Volume 2): AMEU JOURNAL OF PLURIDISCIPLINARY STUDIES (AJPS)

The AMEU Journal of Pluridisciplinary Studies (AJPS) with ISSN: 3134-7118 (print) and eISSN: 3134-7126 welcomes articles of high-quality research in the fields of: Education, Sciences and Allied Health, Business and Financial Studies, Social Sciences, Humanities, and Religious Studies. The journal publishes a wide range of scholarly content, including: Original Research Articles, Review Articles, Case Studies, and Short Communications on emerging or topical themes.

AUTHORS' GUIDELINES. Manuscripts must comply with the following guidelines to qualify for review:
Organization: The article should be organized in the following sections: title page, abstract (and keywords), introduction, methodology, results, discussion, conclusion, references, and appendices (where available).
Abstract: The abstract should not exceed 300 words and include a maximum of five keywords. This section should briefly cover the following aspects: background and objective, methods, key findings, and conclusion.
Formatting cologne submissions should be in MS Word format, Times New Roman font, size 12, double-spaced, with the following page limits: Original Article (Scientific): 6,000 words; Original Article (Social Science): 12,000 words; Review Article: 8,000 words; Short Communication: 2,000 words; Case Studies: 7,000 words. Authors are encouraged to present and discuss findings concisely.
Author information: the title page must include the names, institutional affirmations, email addresses, and phone numbers of all authors, with the corresponding author clearly indicated. Authors should finalize the order of their names before submission. Changes to the authorship list can be made only before final acceptance, with reasons provided by the corresponding author and written confirmation from all other authors. After acceptance, no adjustments to the authorship list will be allowed.
Author contributions: for multiple authors, specify each author's contributions using the credit taxonomy, which includes roles such as conceptualization, data curation, formal analysis, funding acquisition, investigation, methodology, project administration, resources, software, supervision, validation, visualization, writing - original draft, and writing - review and editing.
References and citations: Use the APA 7th edition referencing style.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The corresponding author should submit both the cover letter and the manuscript as separate attachments to contactajps@ame.edu.lr. All submissions undergo double-blind peer review. Authors are therefore to keep author names and identifying details off the manuscript; place them on the title page and in the cover letter only. The abstract must not exceed 300 words and must not contain citations. Provide a full title (200 characters or fewer, sentence case) and a short title (70 characters or fewer). Include a cover letter stating the manuscript category, its importance, originality, and relevance; full author details; the corresponding author's email and telephone number; the ORCID ID of the corresponding author(s); and declarations on AI use, conflicts of interest, and funding. Include statements on ethics, funding, data availability, and author contributions. Studies involving human subjects must have ethical clearance.
Manuscripts are screened for similarity before peer review. The maximum permitted similarity is 25%.

SUBMISSION DETAILS

The corresponding author of the manuscript should please send the cover letter and the manuscript as attachments to: contactajps@ame.edu.lr with the subject line "ARTICLE SUBMISSION."
The deadline for manuscript submission for each volume is August 31, every year.
